NEWS RELEASE

Hiawatha National Forest Camp Cooks Open House at Rapid River

Gladstone, MI (October 11, 2016) – Hiawatha National Forest is hosting a Camp Cooks project open house at the Rapid River office on Tuesday, October 18, 2016 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. The Nahma Multi-use Trail is also part of the discussion. Photographs of existing conditions in the field will be on display. People can discuss their specific concerns directly with the employees working on the project. Maps will be available for people to mark the specific places they want to access by motorized or non-motorized travel.

The office is located at 8181 US Highway 2, Rapid River, MI 49878. Acting Public Affairs/District Ranger Joanne Sanfilippo wants people to come to identify specific concerns, discuss options, and see photographs of the conditions that led to the proposal. For more information, please contact Matt Dickinson at 906-387-2512 x16 mattdickinson@fs.fed.us or Joanne Sanfilippo at 906-428-5829 jmsanfilippo@fs.fed.us. Additional information is available on the web at <http://www.fs.usda.gov/project/?project=49255>.
